

The Republican Liberty Caucus of Florida -- Spring events

www.rlcfl.org

MARCH 29 -- JOHN STOSSEL, "FREEDOM & ITS ENEMIES"

ABC News correspondent John Stossel of "20/20" fame will speak at 7 p.m., March 29, at the University Theatre of Florida Atlantic University, 777 Glades Road, Boca Raton. This free event is chaired by RLCers Philip Blumel and John Hallman, Florida director of FreedomWorks.

APRIL 6 -- BOB BURG, "WHAT SHOULD WE EXPECT FROM GOVERNMENT?"

RLCer Bob Burg, author of Winning Without Intimidation (see www.bobburg.com), has distilled the libertarian argument for limited government into a clear and simple talk. On April 6, Burg will share it with the Republican Club of Central Palm Beach County at the behest of local RLCers who believe it could form the core of a candidate's stump speech, should Burg be convinced to run for public office. The meeting starts at 6:30 p.m. on Wednesday, April 6, at the Atlantis Country Club, 190 Atlantis Blvd., in the city of Atlantis. The meeting will be preceded at 6 p.m. by a cocktail reception. $10, includes one drink.

MAY 4 -- EDWARD HUDGINS, "THE NEED FOR A NEW INDIVIDUALISM"

Edward Hudgins, the new executive director of The Objectivist Center (see www.theobjectivistcenter.org), examines the root causes of Americans' successes — and failures — in his call for an explicitly individualist creed as inspired by novelist and philosopher Ayn Rand. Hudgins will deliver his address to the Republican Club of Central Palm Beach County at 6:30 p.m. on Wednesday, May 4, at the Atlantis Country Club, 190 Atlantis Blvd. in the city of Atlantis. The meeting will be preceded at 6 p.m. by a cocktail reception. $10, includes one drink.

The Republican Liberty Caucus of Florida -- Spring events

www.rlcfl.org

MARCH 29 -- JOHN STOSSEL, "FREEDOM & ITS ENEMIES"

ABC News correspondent John Stossel of "20/20" fame will speak at 7 p.m., March 29, at the University Theatre of Florida Atlantic University, 777 Glades Road, Boca Raton. This free event is chaired by RLCers Philip Blumel and John Hallman, Florida director of FreedomWorks.

APRIL 6 -- BOB BURG, "WHAT SHOULD WE EXPECT FROM GOVERNMENT?"

RLCer Bob Burg, author of Winning Without Intimidation (see www.bobburg.com), has distilled the libertarian argument for limited government into a clear and simple talk. On April 6, Burg will share it with the Republican Club of Central Palm Beach County at the behest of local RLCers who believe it could form the core of a candidate's stump speech, should Burg be convinced to run for public office. The meeting starts at 6:30 p.m. on Wednesday, April 6, at the Atlantis Country Club, 190 Atlantis Blvd., in the city of Atlantis. The meeting will be preceded at 6 p.m. by a cocktail reception. $10, includes one drink.

MAY 4 -- EDWARD HUDGINS, "THE NEED FOR A NEW INDIVIDUALISM"

Edward Hudgins, the new executive director of The Objectivist Center (see www.theobjectivistcenter.org), examines the root causes of Americans' successes — and failures — in his call for an explicitly individualist creed as inspired by novelist and philosopher Ayn Rand. Hudgins will deliver his address to the Republican Club of Central Palm Beach County at 6:30 p.m. on Wednesday, May 4, at the Atlantis Country Club, 190 Atlantis Blvd. in the city of Atlantis. The meeting will be preceded at 6 p.m. by a cocktail reception. $10, includes one drink.

